

February 26, 2001

spraymation.com/cp

COMPUTER Person

Experience in Windows, Unix and legacy software maintenance. Position is responsible for maintaining code in Business Basic, computer hardware, and Unix and Windows networks. Position also trains office staff and takes care of other office equipment. .

Download a copy of this page in Word document format
Download a copy of this document in PDF format to print.

We have decided to use a questionnaire to get a better understanding of your experience. We will acknowledge e-mail receipts. We will select a small number of applicants and setup interviews in the next few weeks.

Please send a copy of your resume and the completed questionnaire by e-mail to kerzel@spraymation.com or fax it to 954 484 9778. Include a cover letter and any other facts that might be important when selecting candidates.

The questionnaire for Computer Person

Name:
Do you have Unix (SCO) Operating Systems experience?
Do you have Windows 98 Operating Systems experience?
Do you have Windows NT Operating Systems experience?
Do you have programming experience in Basic?
Do you have programming experience in C?
Do you have programming experience in Business Basic?
Do you have programming experience with legacy code?
Are you experienced with "Live Data"?
Are you experienced with Microsoft Office components?
Do you understand and can you work with PC hardware?
Can you provide user support for PC users?
Can you do software installations?
Can you do Hardware installations and upgrades?
Can you Provide software support for software supplied to customers by Spraymation?
Can you Provide office equipment support for office staff?
Can you Provide copier support for office staff?
Can you provide telephone equipment support for office staff?
What salary are you looking for?